Sequor Law Recognized by Chambers & Partners

June 6, 2022 Miami, Florida- Sequor Law, a Miami-based international law firm working in the areas of asset recovery, financial fraud, insolvency and financial services litigation, both domestically and cross-border, is honored to have been recognized by Chambers & Partners in the 2022 USA Guide for Bankruptcy Litigation Band 2. Sequor Law is also ranked globally for Asset Recovery in the 2022 Guide for Asset Recovery Band 2.

Chambers USA ranked Sequor Law as “Highly regarded for its contentious bankruptcy practice. Areas of expertise include Chapter 15, with experience in cross-border filings, especially in Latin America. Also draws on its knowledge of fraud for investigations into asset recovery and other complex bankruptcy matters.” Clients commented “They repeatedly deliver on their promises and do what they say they’re going to do on time.”

Additionally, Sequor Law attorneys have also been individually ranked. Shareholder Leyza Blanco has been ranked Band 1 for Bankruptcy Litigation and Band 2 for Bankruptcy Restructuring, Founding Shareholder Gregory Grossman has been ranked Band 2 in Bankruptcy Litigation and Shareholder Fernando Menendez has been ranked Band 3 in Bankruptcy Litigation in Florida.

“Being recognized as one of Florida’s highly acclaimed attorneys for my ability to advise on and litigate on bankruptcy cases with international interests is a tremendous honor. Reaching the highest Band in Chambers has been an achievement that is a fulfillment of hard work and dedication,” said Leyza Blanco, Shareholder at Sequor Law.

Gregory Grossman, Founding Shareholder at Sequor Law stated that “It is an honor for our firm and individual attorneys to be ranked by Chambers & Partners. The rankings are a validation of the collaborative role of our entire team of professionals, and the creative and innovative strategies we employ as a team in reaching our clients’ goals.”

Chambers & Partners USA ranks the work of the leading law firms in the United States and their attorneys in a variety of practice areas. Individual lawyers are ranked in their practice-area(s) on the basis of their legal knowledge and experience, ability, effectiveness and their client-service. Law firms and attorneys are ranked on the quality work of their lawyers, as well as the effectiveness and capability of its entire team, including its strength and depth. Both client input and Chambers’ own research are considered for ranking placement in the Chambers Guide.
